UEN Implementation & How It Affects You

- What is UEN ?
- What does it mean to TradeNet® ?
- Demo

What is UEN?

- UEN – Unique Entity Number
- A common identification number for all entities (such as businesses, societies and management corporations, Clinics, etc.) to transact with Singapore Government
- Syntax of UEN
 - Only alphanumeric characters
 - Varies in length ie, Min 9 and Max. 10 chars
 - No blank spaces and special characters

What is UEN ?

Entity	UEN Format
Businesses (will retain their business registration number issued by ACRA)	nnnnnnnnX (9 characters)
Companies (will retain their company registration number issued by ACRA)	yyyynnnnnX (10 characters)
All other entities not registered with ACRA (will be issued with a new UEN by their respective issuance agencies).	TyyPQnnnnX (10 characters) "yy" - year "PQ" - type of entity "nnnn"- running serial number "X" - check alphabet
Limited Liability Partnerships and Foreign companies will be issued with the new UEN by ACRA	TyyPQnnnnX (10 characters)

UEN for TradeWeb™ Live!

- The TradeWeb™ Live! application will be updated early December
- Check Party and Claimant Party Code that UEN has been inserted for all companies
- Check Company Profile screen that UEN has been inserted as well
- If date is before 1 January 2009, TradeWeb™ Live! will auto-fill the Party Tab's "CR UEI" field with CR Number. But from the 1 January 2009 onwards, UEN will be auto-fill into that field instead.

UEN for TradeWeb™ Desktop

- TradeWeb™ Desktop will be updated in early December. Version number will be 1.3
- There will be an option to export Party and Claimant Code into a .txt file
- Go to the uen.gov.sg website to upload the generated .txt file. The website link is here: <http://www.uen.gov.sg/uen/preUEN2UENUpload.do>
- Will receive an email from UEN authority to download a .csv file
- Upload the .csv file to TradeWeb™ Desktop. The software will automatically insert the UEN into your Party and Claimant Code in the correct places.
- Check that in the Company Profile screen, company's UEN number is added
- If date is before 1 January 2009, TradeWeb™ Desktop will auto-fill the Party Tab's "CR UEI" field with CR Number. But from the 1 January 2009 onwards, UEN will be auto-fill into that field instead.
